

Autism Neuroscience Conference Programme
Faculty of Law, Cambridge
10th September 2010

09:00 – 09:30	Registration and Coffee
09:30 – 09:45	Welcome Professor Simon Baron-Cohen, Autism Research Centre, Cambridge
09:45 – 10:45	Keynote: The Genetics of Asperger Syndrome Dr Bhismadev Chakrabarti, Universities of Cambridge and Reading
10:45 – 11:15	Towards a unifying theory of ASD Dr Bruno Gepner, University of Aix-Marseille 1, Aix-en-Provence, France
11:15 – 11:45	Refreshments and Posters
11:45 – 12:15	Facial identity recognition in the broader autism phenotype Ellie Wilson, Macquarie Centre for Cognitive Science, Macquarie University, Australia
12:15 – 12:45	The validity of autism spectrum diagnoses after the age of 7: experience in a community child development centre Dr Edith Posener, Director of Clalit Community Child Development Centre in Netanya, Israel
12:45 – 13:45	Lunch and Posters
13:45 – 14:45	Keynote: fMRI and the self in autism Dr Mike Lombardo, Autism Research Centre, University of Cambridge, UK
14:45 – 15:15	A possible role for the insula in impairments of attention to faces in autism Dr Justin Williams, Department of Child Health, University of Aberdeen, UK
15:15 – 15:45	Comprehension of rational and irrational actions in the typical and autistic brain Dr Antonia Hamilton, School of Psychology, University of Nottingham
15:45 – 16:15	Refreshments and Posters
16:15 – 17:15	Keynote: Foetal testosterone and Autistic Traits Dr Bonnie Auyeung, Autism Research Centre, Cambridge University
17:15 – 17:45	Androgens in adult ASD: a controlled study Jonna M. Eriksson, Department of Neuroscience, Karolinska Institutet, Sweden
17:45 – 18:00	Closing remarks Dr Carrie Allison, Autism Research Centre, Cambridge University